The deadline for receiving votes is 12 noon on Friday, February 27, 2015. Local World house rules apply see www.thesentinel.co.uk/houserules. The shortlisted project with the highest amount of votes received will be awarded the £1,000. Votes can only be submitted for one of the projects listed above in the Newcastle-under-Lyme region. Entries received after this date will not be counted. We may use the information you give us to verify the vote. The decision on the vote count is final and no correspondence will be entered into. Vodafone Community Connection Award has final approval over the award of the £1,000 prize fund. In the event that the outcome of voting cannot be reasonably determined because of fraud or other irregularities beyond the control of The Sentinel and Vodafone, then all or part of the vote may be cancelled, declared invalid or postponed and Vodafone Community Connection decision will be final as to which project receives the £1,000. Winners will be announced in March 2015. This promotion is specifically for The Newcastle-under-Lyme area. All entrants should be a local charity, club or group that makes a significant impact on the local community. It cannot be a personal or individual plight nor a government funded organisation such as a school. The award must also be for a specific purpose or project, rather than just to cover operating costs. The award must be stand-alone rather than form any part of a larger contribution or bigger appeal.
